Charter of commitment

The charity organization, AGORAé, is a place of exchanges and solidarity. It is managed by volunteers and civic service volunteers. Its ethics are based on peer support, social diversity, respect and tolerance. Consequently, its daily performance depends on everyone's commitment.

The AGORAé team commits to :

- Provide the beneficiary a good quality and diversified food aid for the time and amount defined during the allocation commission ;
- Be available, polite, welcoming, respectful, non-judgemental and to respect the confidentiality and the beneficiary's anonymity ;
- Organize low cost/free activities primarily intended for the beneficiary, in order to make them enjoy hobbies and cultural outings.

As beneficiary I engage to :

- Respect the place and people for the everyone's sake ;
- Maintain the grocery's working flow while taking in account the necessities of others beneficiaries with the most demanded products and by respecting the communicated opening hours ;
- Be implicated, at least once per trimester, in the AGORAé's life, to promote exchanges, conversations and conviviality. This participation takes form either by joining the organized activities (cooking lessons, workshops...), or by helping the grocery's working flow (project creation, food delivery... ).
